

Dr. Deep Bali accepted into Forbes Coaches Council

GURGAON -- Dr. Deep Bali, Columbia University ACI, CEO & Leadership Coach, Recalibrate, has been accepted into the Forbes Coaches Council, an invitation-only community for leading business and career coaches.

Deep joins other Forbes Coaches Council members, who are hand-selected, to become part of a curated network of successful peers and get access to a variety of exclusive benefits and resources, including the opportunity to submit thought leadership articles and short tips on industry-related topics for publishing on Forbes.com.

Forbes Councils combines an innovative, high-touch approach to community management perfected by the team behind Young Entrepreneur Council (YEC) with the extensive resources and global reach of Forbes. As a result, Forbes Council members get access to the people, benefits and expertise they need to grow their businesses — and a dedicated member concierge who acts as an extension of their own team, providing personalized one-on-one support.

"It is an honour to join Forbes Coaches Council, the esteemed community of business leaders from around the world," said Bali. "This partnership is testimony to the work we're doing enabling leaders to pivot businesses with the latest methodologies in neuroscience and whole brain thinking-based learning cycles, powered by technology in AI and analytics."

Scott Gerber, founder of Forbes Councils, says, "We are honored to welcome Deep into the community. Our mission with Forbes Councils is to curate successful professionals from every industry, creating a vetted, social capital-driven network that helps every member make an even greater impact on the business world."
