

Recalibrate Opens New Office In Pune

GURUGRAM, India, May 9 – Recalibrate, an agile coaching and organization development consulting company that supports organizations to pivot their people, innovation and sales engines, today announced the opening of an additional office in Pune India. This new office is at Arrisa Avenue, Unit No. 305, 3rd Floor, EON Free Zone, Kharadi, Pune 411014. The move is part of Recalibrate’s business strategy to expand into major cities in India.

Dr. Deep Bali, CEO of Recalibrate said, “We are very excited to expand our business operations to Pune. The thought is to be able to service our growing client base in the west, specifically Mumbai and Pune. Within 18 months in our practice we are servicing clients pan India and scaling at the speed of light. We are grateful!”

About Recalibrate

Recalibrate is an agile coaching and organization development consulting company that supports in pivoting organizations through their people, sales, and innovation engines, powered by AI and analytics based technology platforms. Recalibrate ‘Alchemists’ are practitioners, thinkers, academicians with global business experience in leadership roles in different business settings and industries. They use the latest technology and methodologies in neuroscience and whole brain thinking-based learning cycles. Recalibrate’s clients include MNCs, global conglomerates, Large Enterprises, SMEs and Start-ups in the BFSI, IT/ITES, Manufacturing, Telecommunication, Management Consulting and Media industries.

For any queries please feel free to reach out to:

Puja Puja

Managing Partner and Head of Leadership & Coaching Practice Recalibrate Pvt. Ltd.
puja@recalibrate.world